Colorado	2013	C.R.S.A. § 1- 2-217.7; Secretary of State - Voter Registration FAQs	Early voting period through Election Day.	Statewide vote centers.	Voters are required to show a Colorado state driver's license or ID card issued by the Department of Revenue, and complete and sign a self-affirmation and affidavit. Colorado developed its own e-poll book system that is networked to communicate with the statewide voter registration database in real time. All jurisdictions have access to the system to check that a new registrant has not registered or voted in a different county in the same election.	State issued driver's license or ID card; Signed self-affirmation; Signed affidavit;	No proof of residency requirements. (Participates in Real ID)

*All states who offer same day registration also require that voters who register and vote on Election Day present documentation to verify their identity. A current driver's license or ID card will suffice in all states.
