when the register of deeds has been authorized by the director of property valuation to process questionnaires by electronic imaging and to allow an electronic copy to be retained if questionnaires are received by means of digital media transmission and retained in an electronic document management system. The costs are currently borne by counties and there will be no additional costs as a result of this revision. Handling documents digitally may represent a cost savings to many counties. There will be no economic impact on the general public.

93-4-3. Split and combined real estate parcel sales; duties of county officials. This regulation is revised to require county appraisers to enter sales information regarding a split or combined real estate sale on the parent parcel when the real estate sales validation is received prior to the creation of working files for the next appraisal year. After the creation of working files for the next appraisal year, the county appraiser is required to enter sales information in the county's computer-assessed mass appraisal system. The costs are currently borne by counties and there will be no additional costs as a result of this revision. There will be no economic impact on the general public.

93-4-4. Assemblage and entering of sales data; accounting for real estate sales validation questionnaires; duties of county officials. This regulation is revised to require county appraisers to electronically upload the recorded monthly sales data from the county's computer-assisted mass appraisal system to the current year's ratio study database at the division of property valuation, not later than the 15th day of the following month. Also, it is revised to require county appraisers to submit the complete set of sales validation questionnaire documents recorded in the previous month to the director of property valuation or the director's agents or, alternatively, to electronically upload the complete set of recorded monthly sales as digital image files to the sales validation questionnaire database at the division of property valuation. The costs are currently borne by counties and there will be no additional costs as a result of this revision. Handling documents digitally may represent a cost savings to many counties. There will be no economic impact on the general public.

93-4-5. Access to county records by the director of property valuation; duties of county officials. This regulation is revised to require county appraisers to prepare and submit the electronic assessment administration file of all appraised values to the director of property valuation not later than three business days after the mailing of the annual real property valuation notices. The costs are currently borne by counties and there will be no additional costs as a result of this revision. There will be no economic impact on the general public.

93-4-6. Performance standards. Table 2-3 of the standard on ratio studies approved by the executive board of the international association of assessing officers in April 2013, is adopted with modifications. The table is modified to require the coefficient of dispersion to have a range of 5.0 to 20.0, with a confidence level of 95 percent. As modified, the table sets forth the uniformity standards that county appraisers are required to maintain in valuing property for ad valorem property tax purposes. The costs are currently borne by counties and there will be no additional costs as a result of this revision. There will be no economic impact on the general public.

Copies of the proposed amendments and the associated economic impact statements may be obtained from the Division of Property Valuation or may be accessed from the Division's website at <http://www.ksrevenue.org/pvd.html>.

ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

This is a single economic impact statement for proposed amendments to permanent regulations 93-4-2, 93-4-3, 93-4-4, 93-4-5 and 93-4-6. These regulations are required by K.S.A. 79-1491.

- I. BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSED REGULATIONS AND THEIR INTENDED EFFECT: K.A.R. 93-4-2, 93-4-3, 93-4-4, 93-4-5 and 93-4-6 establish procedures and timelines for processing real estate sales validation questionnaires required by K.S.A. 79-1437c. The procedures include the annotation, retention and distribution of the various copies of the questionnaires. The timelines establish deadlines for the distribution of the various copies of the questionnaires and require the entry of sales information from the questionnaires into the county's computer-assisted appraisal system and the ratio study database in the division of property valuation. In addition, these regulations instruct county appraisers on the processing of sales information on split and combined real estate parcel sales and give the director of property valuation and the director's agents access to the county's computer-assisted appraisal system for the purpose of generating and printing reports and preparing data files for electronic extraction of sales information on a monthly basis. Table 2-3 of the standard on ratio studies approved by the executive board of the international association of assessing officers in April 2013, is adopted with modifications. The table is modified to require the coefficient of dispersion to have a range of 5.0 to 20.0, with a confidence level of 95 percent. As modified, the table sets forth the uniformity standards that county appraisers are required to maintain in valuing property for ad valorem property tax purposes.
- II. WHETHER OR NOT THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS ARE MANDATED BY FEDERAL LAW AS A REQUIREMENT FOR PARTICIPATION IN OR IMPLEMENTING A FEDERALLY SUBSIDIZED OR ASSISTED PROGRAM: No.
- III. WHETHER THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS EXCEED THE REQUIREMENTS OF APPLICABLE FEDERAL LAW: N/A.
- IV. DESCRIPTION OF THE COST, THE PERSONS WHO WILL BEAR THE COST, AND THOSE WHO WILL BE AFFECTED BY THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS: No additional cost will be incurred by these regulations because they adopt existing procedures. Handling documents digitally may represent a cost savings to many counties. These regulations impact registers of deeds and the county appraisers.

- V. A DESCRIPTION OF ANY LESS COSTLY OR LESS INTRUSIVE METHODS THAT WERE CONSIDERED BY THE STATE AGENCY FOR ACHIEVING THE STATED PURPOSE OF THE REGULATIONS AND THE REASONS THAT THOSE METHODS WERE REJECTED IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS: The only thing that would make these regulations less intrusive would be to allow more time for processing the real estate sales validation questionnaires; however, such delay would be damaging to the review of the accuracy of property appraisals which depend on the prompt processing of real estate sales information. Consequently, allowing more processing time was rejected.
- VI. SUMMARY: These regulations will not impact the revenue of cities, counties or school districts.
