ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

This is the economic impact statement for proposed amendments to permanent regulation 93-6-3. This regulation is required by K.S.A. 2015 Supp. 19-430.

- I. A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSED REGULATION AND ITS INTENDED EFFECT: K.A.R. 93-6-3 establishes continuing education requirements to retain the RMA (registered mass appraiser) designation. The RMA was created in 1997 as a designation with a primary emphasis on education and experience relevant to the Kansas ad valorem property tax system. With the creation of the 7-hour National USPAP Update for Mass Appraisal in 2015 by the Appraisal Standards Board of the Appraisal Foundation (IAAO course 181), the Kansas standards of mass appraisal workshop is no longer needed.

- II. WHETHER OR NOT THE PROPOSED REGULATION IS MANDATED BY FEDERAL LAW AS A REQUIREMENT FOR PARTICIPATING IN OR IMPLEMENTING A FEDERAL PROGRAM: This regulation is not mandated by federal law, and therefore, the regulation does not exceed the requirements of federal law.

- III. DESCRIPTION OF THE COST, THE PERSONS WHO WILL BEAR THE COST, AND THOSE WHO WILL BE AFFECTED BY THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS: Continuing education requirements involve cost, i.e., the cost of the prescribed courses, travel, lodging and time away from the appraiser's regular duties. The cost is borne by the appraiser in some instances and by the employing county in other instances where the county elects to pay for the courses. Currently, in part, an individual with an RMA designation is required to complete IAAO course 151 or IAAO course 191, or equivalent, once every four years. The proposed amendment to the regulation adds the new 7-hour National USPAP Update for Mass Appraisal by the Appraisal Standards Board of the Appraisal Foundation (IAAO course 181) as an alternative course available to maintain the RMA designation. No additional cost should be incurred by the appraiser as IAAO course 181 is added as an option. The appraiser will be required to complete only one of the three course options every four years. In order to prevent duplication of course material, the proposed amendment removes the Kansas standards of mass appraisal workshop, a Kansas Department of Revenue workshop, as a requirement to maintain the RMA designation. At the time of the last amendment to this regulation in 2013, the Department of Revenue estimated the cost of continuing education to range from $415 to $850 per year depending on courses selected. This estimate does not change as a result of this proposed amendment to the regulation. Private Citizens will not bear the cost, except as explained above. There are no costs to the Kansas Department of Revenue.

- IV. A DESCRIPTION OF ANY LESS COSTLY OR LESS INTRUSIVE METHODS THAT WERE CONSIDERED BY THE STATE AGENCY FOR ACHIEVING THE STATED PURPOSE OF THE REGULATIONS AND THE REASONS THAT THOSE METHODS WERE REJECTED IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSED REGULATIONS: The RMA was created in 1997 as a designation with a primary emphasis on education and experience relevant to the Kansas ad valorem property tax system. Prior to the creation of the RMA designation, K.S.A. 19-430 required county appraisers to obtain a designation from either the International Association of Assessing Officers or the Kansas Real Estate Appraisal Board. As a Kansas Department of Revenue sponsored designation, efforts have been made to keep the cost of obtaining and maintaining the RMA designation as low as possible. The only way to make the proposed regulation less intrusive would be to prescribe less continuing education for county appraisers. This alternative was rejected because the position of county appraiser demands a highly qualified individual who can value property in compliance with the constitution and laws of Kansas and who can instill confidence in his or her appraisals by the public.
- V. SUMMARY: This regulation will not impact the revenue of cities, counties or school districts.
